Wine Cellar Robber Caught Asleep

John E. Clark of No. 32 Hereford street, Back Bay, went down to his wine cellar today and found that twenty quarts of choice Irish whiskey was missing. He rushed to the police with the news.

A policemann entered the cellar and listened. He heard deep sonorous snores, and in a dark corner found William McIntyre, who had, nestling close to him, nineteen of the missing bottles. The twentieth was empty. McIntyre had lingered with his find too long and too earnestly. Judge Sullivan sentenced him to two months in jail for breaking and entering.

DENIES LENINE HAS MADE SATURDAY SABBATH

Washington, April 30.—"It is an unmitigated lie!" exclaimed S. Nuorteva, secretary to L. C. A. K. Martens, "Soviet ambassador" to the United States, when he was questioned today concerning the reported action of Nikolai Lenine, in declaring Sat[illegible]day, instead of Sunday, as the [illegible] holiday in Russia. "It [illegible] par with the other lie that [illegible] was nationalizing its women."

POLICE ON FUGITIVE HUNT

Fall River Man With Criminal Record Sought in Connection With Auto Mystery

Taunton, April 30.—The taller of the two men last seen in the company of Oliver L. Eklund, missing Providence chauffeur, is believed to have been a Fall River man well known to the police.

This man is a fugitive from justice on a larceny complaint, and has a lengthy criminal record. Statewide search was begun for him today. The police regard the clew as the most hopeful so far in the investigation of the disappearance of the chauffeur, supposed to have been murdered.

State Officer Michael Fleming arrived here today armed with photographs of the Fall River suspect. These were submitted to all the witnesses who saw the "murder car" the night of Eklund's disappearance.

If the photographs are positively recognized as those of one of the men in the "death car" the police feel that their work will have been

GUARD FOR GOVERNOR COOLIDGE

Machine Guns Will Be Used If Rioting Occurs in Boston Tomorrow

Developments in the program to suppress radical "May Day" outbreaks, following revelations by Attorney-General Palmer, in which a number of prominent men were said to be marked for assassination, were:

1—Warning by George A. Kelliher of the Department of Justice, that a dangerous situation exists in the country.

2—Guards, watchmen and elevator men at the State House instructed to be on watch for suspicious characters.

3—Boston police, equipped with machine and riot guns, prepared for any emergency, according to Superintendent Crowley.

4—No permits for parades will be issued and any attempt to parade will be immediately broken up, the police say.

5—Chicago police began a roundup of agitators, resulting in several hundred men being Massachusetts, There She Is!

Governor Coolidge issued the following statement today:

I have read the threats in the newspapers. Outside of that I have no information. Whatever menace they may have had, it is no doubt rendered harmless by reason of exposure. Threats are of no consequence. The life of one man, even though he holds an important official position, is not of supreme consequence.

The orderly execution of the law will go on so long as I have any authority over it, and it has been amply demonstrated that Massachusetts will provide for its continuance, whatever contingency may arise.

Those who are attempting to destroy the liberty of others under the assertion that they are providing liberty for themselves, could meet with no success in this Commonwealth, and should they [illegible] themselves by action are sure to be overwhelmed.

FIGHT FIRES ON PLYMOUTH LINE

Towns of Carver and Darby Menaced; Blaze Started Along New Haven R. R.

Plymouth, April 30.—Forest fires between Carver and Darby, along the New Haven Railroad, have caused alarm the past twenty-four hours, and kept the volunteer "bucket squad" of fire fighters in Darby busy safeguarding houses in that town.

It is believed that the fires were started by sparks from the locomotives and fanned by the heavy winds.

Engineer William Tately stopped his train at Darby on account of dense smoke, and, with his fireman, William Hurley, aided in putting out fires at the homes of William Lapham and W. A. Boyd. Fire Chief Hiller of this town is holding motor apparatus in readiness for emergency calls.

DUNCAN NAMED FOR COMMERCE BOARD

Washington, April 30.—President Wilson today sent to the Senate the nominations of Henry Jones Ford of Princeton, N. J., and James Duncan of Quincy, Mass., to be members of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Mr. Ford is professor of politics at Princeton University. Mr. Duncan is president of the Granite Cutters' Internationol Association, has served as vice-president of the American Federation of Labor and was appointed by the President to the commission sent to Russia under the direction of Elihu Root.

WOOD'S LEAD IN NEW JERSEY NOW 1,200

Trenton, N. J., April 30.—Official figures today further increased General Wood's lead over Senator Johnson in Tuesday's primary. In Camden County, where the Johnson forces intend to demand a recount, the official figures gave Wood five more votes than did the unofficial figures. Complete unofficial returns place General Wood's lead over Senator Johnson at approximately 1,200 for the entire State.

BLUEBEARD MARRIED 28 IN 15 YEARS

Crimes Revealed in Confession at Los Angeles, Following Two Attempts at Suicide

Los Angeles, April 30.—Wife murder on a scale rivalling the exploits of the "Blue Beard" famed in legend was admitted in an amazing confession alleged by the police to have been made by Charles N. Harvey, "super-bigamist."

The trail of Harvey was first picked up in Massachusetts, where he began his operations fifteen years ago, and ended here, where after two attempts at suicide he told his story from a bed in the county hospital.

Harvey calmly confessed that he had been married to twenty-eight women, and that he had killed four of the women "that he remembered."

Confronted with circumstantial evidence that he had slain at least six more, the prisoner would not deny it, saying indifferently that the additional crimes "might have slipped his memory."

FOR INDIGESTION

6—Governor Coolidge, said to have been on the list of murder victims, said he was properly protected.

7—Department of Justice agents will watch all meetings of Communists and other suspected "Reds" scheduled to take place tomorrow.

Reports that State Guardsmen were being held in readiness at the armories in Waltham, Haverhill, Lowell and Springfield, were denied by Adjutant-General Stevens. He declared emphatically that no troops had been ordered out to his knowledge, and if any had been so ordered, he would refuse to indorse their expense bills.

"These reports," he said, "evidently grew from the fact that commanding officers have asked for and been authorized to hold schools of instruction for officers and non-commissioned. It may seem significant that these are being held tomorrow, but is merely a coincidence.

STATEE GUARD NOT CALLED.

"These schools are the result of the schools which were held for transportation purposes at the time of the railroad strike and which at that time caused rumors and reports. As a matter of fact the authority was granted commanding officers to hold these schools about two weeks ago. They will clean up considerable paper work also, left over from the policemen's strike.

"This office has a check on just such things as ordering out troops because it has to O. K. the expenses. No machine gun companies or battalions or other State Guard organizations have been ordered out, by this office, and if anyone else has ordered them out I will not pay the bills."

It was stated that Sheriff Kelliher had made preparations to protect Charles Street Jail from any possible attack, having augmented the ordinary force by a large number of extra armed guards. There are also searchlights mounted on the walls of the jail.

The Suffolk County courthouse will be closely watched, and the home of Judge Albert F. Hayden of Roxbury, victim of a bomb plot last year, was also guarded.

Department of Justice officials in a later statement, admitted that there might be demonstrations in the textile cities of the State, into which a flood of inflammable literature has recently poured. They are prepared to handle any trouble, however.

The attorney general's statement, in which he declared that plans for industrial terrorism and bomb plots, scheduled for tomorrow, had been discovered by Federal agents, was not specific. Although the names of a number of men were said to have been listed for murder, they were not made public by Attorney General Palmer.

It is understood, however, that this list included the attorney general, at least one justice of the Supreme Court, Governor Allen of Kansas, Elbert Gary and Governor Coolidge.

Governor Coolidge said that he had heard nothing of the matter except what he had read in newspapers, and that no extra precautions had been made to care for him.

POLICE PREPARED.

Superintendent of Police Crowley said that while no trouble was expected, special details would be on duty at each division, armed with machine guns or riot guns. These details will be given special instructions.

The attorney general's statement said that a nation-wide plot was in progress and that the local police had been warned to give the fullest protection to those who had been marked for destruction.

Local officials of the Department of Justice said they did not believe, in view of the habeas corpus proceedings in the local Federal Court, that any violence would feature May Day activities in this city.

Agents of the department have been widely scattered to protect industries against lawlessness.

While officials of the department were reticent as to their plans, it was learned that already agents have under strict surveillance suspected individuals and that those who have shown sympathy for organizations advocating extreme measures will be closely watched.

Communists Call Big May Day Strike

"Strike for the release of all political and industrial prisoners on May Day. Close the shops and factories! Demonstrate your power! Reform cannot be achieved through 'constitutional means.' This is a plea by capitalists to have the working class play the game according to their rules. Establish a working class government—the Dictatorship of the Proletariat. United States' democracy is but formal and a fraud.

"The Communist party does not advocate the use of 'force and violence' at present. It advocates organization. If in the final struggle force becomes necessary, the Communists will not hesitate to use it, even as the Capitalists now use it against the working classes."

—From two leaflets, "Hail to the Soviets" and "Workers of America," sent through the mails today by the Central Executive Committee of the Communist Party of America.

simplified. The finger-prints of the Fall River man will aid in the hunt for him, as will the fact that the police of other cities are familiar with his appearance and methods.

It is at any rate the first concrete clew pointing to any person for whom the authorities could launch a definite search.

The hunt for the body of the missing chauffeur continued today. The searching parties concentrated in the vicinity of Rockywood and Fisher streets. Chief of Police Michael Crowley was in charge. Two troops of Boy Scouts were in the party.

CHARGE TAXI COMPANY USES NO HEADLIGHTS

A hearing was given today by Frank A. Goodwin, registrar of motor vehicles, to the Taxi Service Company of Boston, on their alleged failure to equip their cars with headlights. The hearing was the outcome of the death of Mrs. Julia Morehouse of Medford, and the injury of Miss May Myott of Quincy, Richard Kelly of East Boston, and Horace Nichols of Medford, who were struck by one of the company's taxis. Decision was reserved. All companies operating in Boston without headlights will be summoned for a hearing.

Kicks and Scratches at Captors in Lynn Courthouse in Attempt to Escape

Fifteen-year-old Florence Downey of Ridgeway street, Lynn, sentenced to the Lancaster School for Girls, kicked two men and rendered them helpless, fought off several women and was finally subdued by Police Sergeant George Rowe and Patrolman Matthew Casey in the women's ward at the Lynn court today.

Miss Downey was in court on the charge of being a stubborn child and after the case was disposed of was placed in a cell.

The girl walked out of the cell and when discovered screamed, scratched and kicked at her captors. For fifteen minutes she held six of them at bay.

When Is An Orange Not An Orange?

WHEN it is a compound syrup instead of the real orange juice. As for example, sometimes you buy orangeade and get water flavored with a synthetic preparation of orange. How much better is a glass of orangeade made right from the fruit juice.

That is the way Rich's Tryphosa is made. The real fruit is used and it gives Tryphosa Orange the real fruit flavor.

Serve Tryphosa Orange for dessert at lunch today. You will then appreciate that orange is orange when it's Tryphosa.

HOW PRIMARY VOTERS REPUDIATED WILSON AND LEAGUE

JOHNSON POLICY UPHELD

Defeat for Administration in Every State Shown Balloting This Week

Washington, April 29.—The blanket repudiation of the League of Nations idea by voters in the primary election contests last Tuesday affords striking proof of the fact that the popular mind in America is utterly against the league.

Despite the fact that there exists no machinery for a specific referendum on the league question, voters are finding a way to express themselves as to whether they favor President Wilson's plan for a league, or a league with reservations, or any league at all. In every State where an election has been held the voice of the people has been raised against the league.

IRRECONCILABLES TRIUMPHANT.

Summarized, the results are as follows:

Minnesota—Senator Johnson, on an anti-league platform, swept the State, although prevented by the Republican machine from getting a majority of the delegates.

Michigan—Johnson won an overwhelming victory over Wood, who advocated ratification with reservations.

Nebraska—Johnson on the same platform of "no league" captured the State by a tremendous majority.

Washington—State convention endorsed Senator Poindexter, one of the irreconcilable opponents of the treaty, and commended him for his stand against the league.

New Jersey—Johnson, with no organization and no money, ran a neck-and-neck race with Wood on a no-treaty platform.

Massachusetts—Republicans nominate a "Big Four" headed by Senator Lodge, who led the fight to kill the treaty in the Senate unless reservations were agreed to. In the Democratic primaries Senator Walsh, who opposed President Wilson on the league, led his ticket, and nearly every candidate who did not take an irreconcilable stand against the President's position on the treaty was defeated.

Ohio—Senator Harding, who voted for reservations, and who declared the treaty never could be accepted without reservations, won the Presidential preference vote, and Senator Johnson, not an entrant in the contest, won 12,000 votes for his attack on the league.

BORAH'S COURSE APPROVED.

Idaho—Senator Borah chosen to lead the delegation from his State and praised in the Republican State convention for his masterly fight against the league.

Wisconsin — Republicans elected twenty-six delegates completely dominated by Senator La Follette, one of the "bitter enders," and defeated the men responsive to Senator Lenroot, who fought for "mild" reservations in the Senate.

North Dakota—Senator Johnson carried the State in opposition to the efforts of Senator McCumber, who is willing to take the treaty without reservations.

South Dakota—Carried by General Wood, who favors the League with reservations, but a big vote and several delegates given to Senator Johnson on his "no-league" platform.

Georgia—Senator Hoke Smith and Tom Watson, running in the Democratic primary, received twice as many votes as Attorney-General Palmer, who favored the Wilson league. Senator Smith stood for reservations, and Watson opposed the league entirely.

SOMERVILLE TENANTS WIN CONCESSIONS

Eight landlords appeared before the Somerville rent and housing committee today on invitation of the members. John M. McCarthy presided. Complaints from tenants were discussed. The committee asked the landlords for extension of time in a numer of cases where tenants have been ordered to vacate tomorrow. In nearly every case the request was granted. The landlords were heard privately.

A record-breaking crowd of eager buyers marked the closing day and evening of the bazaar at Symphony Hall under the auspices of the League of Catholic Women.

Bagpipe selections, songs and dances of Ireland were played by the Adamson family. Selections were rendered by Mrs. John D. O'Connor, Miss Nora Frances Burns and Joseph Ecker, accompanied by James Felse.

Mrs. F. E. Slattery, president of the league, and Monsignor Splaine, spiritual director, expressed themselves as more than satisfied with the financial and social outcome of the undertaking.

Should Single Girls Go With Married Men?

Is it permissible for a married man to pay attention to a single woman?

Is it nice of the woman to receive such attentions?

Miss Margaret Merry, a young nurse, testified at the divorce trial of Harry M. Garfield, that she had gone riding with Garfield, when she knew he was married, and that she "thought it was perfectly all right for a respectable girl to have the friendship of a respectable man, even if he was married."

"Are such matters becoming more lax, due to the new freedom of woman, and woman's active associations with man in all walks of life."

"Is the old order changing? Is it all right?"

These questions were put to three representative Boston women.

Two, Mrs. Marie Dewing Faelten and Mrs. True Worthy White, reply "yes, with proper reservations, it is all right for a single woman to receive certain attentions from a married man."

The third woman, Dr. Adelaide M. Abbott, replied with a most emphatic "no."

"YES, IF WIFE IS WILLING."

Mrs. Faelten, president of the Professional Women's Club, said: "I think it is perfectly permissible, if the man's wife is willing. If I had a woman frend of whom I was fond, and if I had confidence in her, I would be pleased that she and my husband were friendly, and enjoyed each other's society. I would allow it.

"I am married myself, and speak from this viewpoint. It seems to me that a husband and wife are all the closer, from liking mutual friends.

"Unmarried women have to go places, and often it is better to go escorted. I consider that there is no room for criticism, if the man and the woman are both respectable."

Mrs. White, prominent suffragist, said:

"This question is a personal matter. Such association depends upon the general feeling between the man and the woman. Also on the definition of friendship. If, by friendship, you mean love making, certainly no woman should enter into such 'friendship' with a married man. It is most dangerous and should never be.

SANE AND WHOLESOME.

"If kindly relations, such as are possible between two women or two men are meant, why yes. I think such friendship between a single woman and a married man is quite sane and wholesome.

"The wife, however, should always be willing. May I say that the right kind of man, and the right kind of woman, may be trusted in friendship, as everywhere else, regardless of the marriage status of either?"

Dr. Abbott, superintendent of Social Work for the W. C. T. U., said: "There is but one answer possible. No such friendship should be tolerated. In my years of work I have seen much of the shady side of life. And I have never seen any good come out of such relationship.

"When a married man pays attention to a single woman harm results; first to the girl, next to the man's wife; finally to all concerned. All such friendships should be taboo.

DOCKMEN CALL OFF STRIKE

Union Votes to Return at Old Wage; Work on Coast Liners Rushed

The striking coastwise longshoremen employed by the Clyde and Savannah lines returned to work today, after nearly seven weeks' idleness. The strike was ended by a vote of the unions last night.

No concessions were made by either line and the men return for the same wages they were receiving when they went out, 65 cents an hour. They demanded an increase of 20 cents an hour.

At the Hoosac docks the Savannah line has finished discharging the steamship City of Rome and the men are now loading her with freight for Savannah. She will sail Saturday and work will be started on the Nacoochee, which will get away next Tuesday.

At the Clyde Line terminal on Lewis Wharf the Lake Faribault is being unloaded and will sail early next week. Work will then be started on the Lake Ellenorah. All of these ships have been in port for more than six weeks.

Both lines began work Monday with strike-breakers, the Clyde Line meeting with success immediately. The Savannah Line was not so successful, but on Tuesday the strikers began to come back at both terminals. Since then practically all of the strikers-breakers have been discharged.

PARTNER BETTER THAN ANY GIRL

John Woods Brooks Ladd Preferred Co-Worker to Miss Ethel French

Chicago, April 30.—Girls are easy to get, but a good business partner is worth more than any sweetheart, according to the philosophy of John Wood Brooks Ladd of Boston.

Mr. Ladd was made defendant in a breach of promise suit for $50,000, Miss Ethel Jay French being the complainant. The partner whom Mr. Ladd values above a sweetheart is Ralph E. Rich, according to the complaint.

"Mr. Rich is responsible for this trouble," said Miss French. "He is afraid that if Mr. Ladd marries me I would rule the business.

"There is absolutely no foundation for jealousy on the part of Mr. Rich, but he cannot understand that. I tried to make this clear to Mr. Ladd, but his only reply was that 'girls are easier to get these days than partners.'

"Mr. Ladd and I met more than four years ago, while he was contemplating a divorce. He was in the aviation service during the war, and the understanding was that we were to be married when peace came, but when he returned he told me that his financial condition would not permit him to take a wife.

"Then it was that I learned of the jealousy of Mr. Rich, who did all in his power to turn Mr. Ladd against me."

The first Mrs. Ladd was a daughter of former Congressman Boutell. She obtained a divorce in 1916.

REVOLVER NEAR VICTIM'S HEAD

Held Not Over Ten Inches Away, Dr. Magrath Tells Jury at Concord

Concord, N. H., April 30.—Concluding his testimony in the trial of Marion Otterson for the murder of Maurice Otterson in the Merrimack County Superior Court today, Dr. George B. Magrath, medical examiner of Boston, said the shot which ended the life of the young World War veteran was made with a revolver held not over ten inches from his head.

With the close of his examination, Sheriff George A. Wooster was called to the witness stand.

He rehearsed the incidents surrounding the arrest of Mrs. Otterson, of the discovery of the revolver which the State claims the woman used and of finding her diamond ring beneath a paper lining in a bureau drawer in her room.

The home at Hookset showed signs of having been ransacked by burglars on the night that Otterson was murdered, but a pay envelope containing $4.58, which was in plain view, was not taken. This was the testimony of Sheriff Wooster, who told of finding the money. He described the location of the revolver and Mrs. Otterson's arrest.

The fact that the alleged death gun had been cleaned after firing was discovered by Howard Otterson, the husband of the accused woman, according to Sheriff Wooster.

The admission, he said, was made on November 10, four days after the crime, when the victim's brother examined the gun in the office of County Solicitor Rainie. Sheriff Wooster said Otterson declared he could bring twelve gun experts from his factory to prove the cleaning.

It is the contention of the government that Mrs. Otterson attempted to wipe the gun barrel and thus divert suspicion.

Queen of the May (1920)

By GEORGE C. MacKINNON

I'm to be Queen of the May, mother;
  But what am I going to wear?
How am I going to pay, mother,
  For slippers at twenty a pair?
Seventeen bucks for a sash, mother.
Wouldn't it hit you a smash, mother?
Where will I corral the cash, mother?
  For I'm to be Queen of the May.

If I charge all the things that I buy, mother,
  To dress as the Queen of the May,
Father is going to die, mother,
  Or a keeper will lead him away.
What once bought a dress, I believe, mother,
Wouldn't now buy the lace for the sleeve, mother,
I cannot help envying Eve, mother,
  When she was the Queen of the May.

WOMAN IN WAR SECRET 'LEAK'

Charged That She Was Responsible for Recall of English Officer

ford Stuart from the British Embassy staff in Washington, according to an explanation of the incident published in the Weekly Magazine here.

The Stuart case attracted widespread speculation and comment on both sides of the Atlantic at the time, because of reports that his recall was effected at the request of the State Department. It was reported at the time that Major Stuart had made "indiscreet" remarks about President Wilson.

The Magazine explained the incident as follows:

During the war, Major Stuart discovered in Washington, a "leak" of important war information to the enemy. A dictaphone was brought into play and a pretty woman in high position in Washington was implicated.

This woman had no apparent income, but was known to be very friendly to a certain American who was "very high indeed." This woman was reporting information of the most secret nature, which she was able to obtain because of her position in Washington society.

The American authorities dared not denounce this woman openly, so it was decided to ostracize her socially. She questioned Major Crauford Stuart as to the reason for this, thereafter declaring that he had invented stories concerning her because she had refused to marry him.

The woman carried her charges to Mrs. Wilson, who believed it, and the result was that Major Stuart was declared persona non grata to the White House.

SUPER BIGAMIST HAD 28 WIVES

Accused of Killing Ten, and Can't Account for Others; Makes Partial Confession

death with hammers were his methods of removing women of whom he tired, the prisoner said, as he recited his crimes.

Harvey realized today that he faces death on the gallows. Calling for the district attorney to "give further information" of his crimes, Harvey is said to have told his hospital attendants: "I am ready to go. I tried twice to kill myself, so I don't fear the extreme penalty for my crimes. But I must have been insane. I know now I was insane when I did it."

Harvey, also known at Richard Huff, said the most of his marrying and murdering had been accomplished within the last four years. He said about that long ago a strange mania to kill come over him, and his unnatural passion was always directed against women. He had no other motive.

The last woman to fall victim to Harvey's passion for killing, according to the police, was Nina Lee Deloney of San Francisco. This was the murder, incidentally, which resulted in the arrest of the alleged wife murderer.

Miss Deloney, or Mrs. Harvey, was slain at Long Beach, between San Diego and the Borego Valley, according to admissions to the police. Sheriffs and police are today digging at various points along this route in search of the body, which was buried.

The Deloney woman was killed with a hammer, according to the confession, as was Miss Betty Pryor of Seattle, reported missing some months ago.

TWO WERE DROWNED.

The other two women whose murder Harvey is said to have acknowledged, were Miss Bertha Goodnick of Seattle and Miss Alice M. Ludvigson of Spokane. Miss Ludvigson was drowned while he was boating with her in a river in Idaho, he said, and Miss Goodnick was drowned in Lake Washington.

The modern Blue Beard tells little of himself. He has admitted that he has had many aliases, and that even Harvey may not be his correct name. The man has declared that he knows little of his own family, beyond the fact that he was born in the South.

One curious characteristic noted among Harvey's wives still living is that but few of them feel resentful toward him. Many of them believe he loves them still, and several came here to console with him, following his arrest.

EXPECT PLEA OF GUILTY.

Harvey's confession was without promise of immunity of any kind, the only stipulation being that he would be tried in Los Angeles county for the murrer of Nina Lee Deloney. Confronted with his own confession of that terrible murher, it is freely predicted that Harvey will stand by his statement that he is ready to go and will plead guilty to the capital offence.

In trying to recall his early life, Horvey said he thought he was born in Tennessee or Texas. When too young to recall he was sent to an orphan's home, "let out" to various farmers, cruelly treated and later in life gravitated to Canada, where he thinks his first marriage was made. But he is not sure.

He contended that his desire to kill was an insane "bloodlust" over which he had no control, which developed since the war. His crimes were committed in mental blank periods, and in his confessions he said that he may have committed other murders.

Those who heard the confession believe "Bluebeard" has other crimes to disclose and that a continuation of the examination, which was halted because the man was too weak to continue, will likely develop other wife murders by the most amazing murderer and bigamist in years.

SALES TAX PLAN HITS SNAGS

Bonus Bill Insurgents Gain Votes That May Force Substitute Scheme

Washington, April 30.—Plans of the House Republican leaders to force through a general sales tax to raise the bulk of the revenue for a soldier bonus was hit two serious blows.

Representatives Frear, Wisconsin, and Young, North Dakota, Republicans, bolted their colleagues on the Ways and Means Committee, framing the legislation and went over to the insurgents as a protest against the sales tax.

With the Democrats standing solid against the sales tax and in favor of a retroactive tax on swollen war fortunes, the committee now is divided 12 to 12. The Republicans, therefore, must keep in line every man on their side in order to report out the bill with the sales tax plan included.

The second blow of the day was the popular reception with which a petition circulated by the insurgent leaders was greeted. The petition declared that the signers favored a bonus for the ex-service men, but were unalterably opposed to a sales tax to raise the necessary revenue. About fifty Republicans were claimed to have signed the petition yesterday and at least twenty-five more were expected to sign today.

Final changes made in the bill were to extend sales tax to hotels and restaurants and except all concerns doing a business of less than $1,000 a month. It also was decided to require the payment of the tax by the seller, with a fine and imprisonment provided in the event that an excess of the tax is passed on to the customer.

SPRECKELS SURPRISED BY HIGH SUGAR PRICES

New York, April 30.—Claus A. Spreckels, the California sugar magnate, expressed astonishment at the condition of the American sugar market when he arrived here from six months on the Riveria.

"There is no good reason for it (the high prices) that I know," he said.

U. S. Officers to Aid Good Prisoner

Atlanta, Ga., April 30.—Because he has saved the government thousands of dollars serving as chief steward during his incarceration in the Asylum Jail, a Federal prison at Washington, D. C., the prison authorities have written Sheriff James I. Lowrey here stating that they are desirous of replacing the funds said to have been fraudulently secured by Timan C. J. McCann, alias E. K. Richeson, fake army officer and alleged check forger, if the indictment pending against McCann here for forgery is noll prossed.

So pleased with his services are the Washington prison officials they have also offered to give him a good salary and a home to remain at the jail.

Music—Home's Refining Influence

In the home where there is no music there is something suggestive of the incomplete—something that is felt not alone by those of the house, but by the visitor as well. Music is the finishing touch—the refining influence.

Filene's—VALUE, a New England virtue

NEW ENGLAND folks have never gone far away from those sterling old virtues of value-seeking, for which there is no substitute. Some parts of the country have. And a hysteria of reckless spending has resulted. Wherever that happened, today there is a slow but sure movement back toward the principle of "seeking the most for your money."

Filene's, being a New England institution, has done what New England folks themselves have done. It has stuck persistently to its principle of better value-giving. Today we do not have to learn all over again "how to give values." All during the period of rising costs New England folks have found Filene's working for their best interests. And because that is so, Filene's is growing today faster than ever because New England folks have continued to find that "their money still goes farther at Filene's."

PHONE GIRLS IN RENT PROTEST

Union Lauds Tenants' League Mass Meeting to Demand Protective Law

These presents, which total some $500 in value, are on exhibition in the windows of the various firms offering them.

Tickets bearing numbers will be distributed by these firms to participants in the parade Monday night, and the lucky numbers will be selected by a committee of Roxbury citizens headed by Sergeant-Major George H. Lawson, marshal of the parade. Selection of the prize winners will take place at a time and place to be determined upon by the Roxbury committee, and the winners will be publicly announced in these columns after the selection has been made.

Sergeant-Major Lawson, who besides acting as marshal of the entire parade, will be in charge of the big Roxbury delegation, reports that over 500 overseas veterans, members of the American Legion, Canadian Expeditionary Forces and the Allied Veterans of the Great War, will participate in the parade, the majority of them in uniform.

These 500 veterans represent only Roxbury. Sergeant-Major Lawson has issued a general appeal to every ex-service man to get in line and come in his uniform if possible.

MINISTERS TO MARCH.

Besides the 500 overseas veterans over 500 Roxbury men and women have already reported to Sergeant-Major Lawson, volunteering to parade and attend the big mass meeting in Tremont Temple which will follow the parade.

Senator Thomas F. Donovan of Roxbury, Ex-Senator Charles I. Quirk and Timothy L. Connolly, ex-president of the City Council, have volunteered to act on the prize committee with Sergeant-Major Lawson.

Several organizations of Greater Boston ministers have notified the Rent Editor that, while they will not march as organizations, many of their members will march as individuals, and that both as individuals and organizations they endorse the aims of the Boston American Tenants' League.

The following letter from the Telephone Operators' Union shows how widespread and how universal is the interest in the League and its big demonstration:

"I am sorry your communication in regard to the parade was not received a day sooner, as it could then have been read at a regular meeting of our organization and definite action taken. As it is now I can only refer it to individuals in the local office, and urge their co-operation, which I certainly promise to do.

PHONE GIRLS' RENT RAISED.

"We are thoroughly in sympathy with any move to advertise the unjust and costly increases, having been advanced in our office rent 125 per cent. since the first of the year, and I sincerely hope the parade will be a success.

"Sincerely your,
(Signed) "M. Baker,
"General Secretary."

The parade will form at Arlington street and Commonwealth avenue at 6:45 and start marching promptly at 7 o'clock. The route will be as follows: Arlington to Boylston, to Tremont, to Park, to Beacon, to Tremont street, to Tremont Temple.

The line will be headed by Stone's Military Band, and a squad of mounted police. In forming, women marchers will form to the left on Commonwealth avenue, and men to the right, so far as individuals are concerned. Leaders of organizations will report to the general secretary upon their arrival, and the marshal will then designate their place in the line. Distribution of red fire and banners will take place after the line is formed and before the parade starts.

When Tremont Temple is filled an overflow meeting will be held at the Parkman Bandstand on Boston Common.

At a mass meeting John J. Martin, vice-president of the Massachusetts Real Estate Exchange, will preside. James B. Gannon, commissioner of finance and revenue of Jersey City, founder of the famous "Gannon plan" which enabled Jersey City to rid itself of rent profiteers, will explain how his plan might be applied to Boston.

Representative Martin Hays, father of the rent legislation now before the General Court, will explain his bill and tell some intensely interesting things about the situation in Boston. Harry Guterman and others will speak.

Every rent payer of Greater Boston who desires to register a protest against present rent conditions, by petitioning the Legislature for relief, may do it by marching in the parade and attending the mass meeting. Members of the Legislature have been invited to review the parade from the steps of the State House, as has Mayor Andrew J. Peters, who is expected to address the meeting.

Here's the chance for every individual and every organization to show their public spirit and do their bit in the battle against the profiteer. The just landlords will be with us.

Let's go!

War Heroes Urged to Join in Rent Parade

Veterans of the American Legion, the American Volunteers, Canadian Expeditionary Forces, and the Allied Veterans of the Great War, are appealed to by Sergeant-Major George H. Lawson of Roxbury, to take part in the Boston American Tenants' League parade next Monday night.

"Five hundred Roxbury veterans have already responded to my appeal and will be in line, the majority of them in uniform," said Sergeant-Major Lawson. "I appeal to every other comrade who served with me in the World War to respond to this call, and take part in this demonstration for the public welfare."

Opened Wife's Mail; Jailed 25 Seconds

Chicago, April 30.—Jeffe Nash, who intercepted and opened a letter addressed to his wife, whom he suspected of leading a double life, drew the shortest criminal term on record. He was sentenced by Federal Judge Landis to serve 25 seconds in custody of the United States marshal.

"Young man," said the judge sternly, "the laws of the United States must be upheld, and when you tamper with the mails you must suffer the consequences. The mails must be protected. I sentence you to twenty-five seconds in custody of the marshal."

While Nash sat in a chair in the corner, with the marshal near, the judge held a watch and noted the flying seconds.

What d'yer say fellers, spozen I run for President (not a dark horse, but a sickly sandy complected mule), an if I do, I'll run tites I can. I'll bet I'll carry Toddy Pond, Saccarap, Calftown, Happytown, Hardscrabble, Gilpen and most every place 'cept Miami, Florida, and if 'lected I'll run the whole durned country jess like the Democratic store; won't spend half or two-thirds of all we take in, gettin it; wouldn't allow any Highbrow or proudstore methods in any part of the outfit; and while I think of it, did you ever notice what benevolentiary and eleemosynary (Putnam's Word Book, Page 85) institutions some of these have suddenly become? Tellin 'bout the small net profits they make an all such nonsense; net profit don't mean anythin, but gross profit which you hear nuthin 'bout does, I uster know a feller who got Fifty Dollars a month an was allers broke, an another feller who only got Twenty-five, allers had money—it's all owen to how yer handle it—jess the same difference 'tween the trytobenice store and the Democratic store. A feller might make a gross profit of Fifty, Sixty or a Hundred Percent an use it all on high-salaried wall flowers, tinsel show an other unnatural things, so when he gets through he only has, One, Two or Three Percent net profit, which looks small but isn't, coz most of the rest is wasted, and the customer don't get it. We claim the Gross profits of the Democratic store last year were much less than any other store of its size in the United States an if yer don't believe it come in an look at the books, and yet we made more net profit than I'd make in a thousand years workin in a sawmill. Jess as simple as runnin' the logs through the boom, an you fellers all know it. So what's the use to arger?

BUSINESS TAX PLAN OPPOSED

Merchants Fight Project to Raise Revenue on Boston Trade

Unanimous opposition to the plan of Mayor Peters' new source of revenue committee to levy taxes on businesses, professions and occupations was brought out at the first public hearing in the aldermanic chambers, City Hall.

Representatives of big department stores, theatrical interests and members of firms and persons in occupations proposed to be taxed declared the contemplated excise taxes were unjust and unfair.

"If this tax is levied against retail sales it would have the effect of putting a discriminatory tax running from 150 to 175 per cent. upon the dealer," declared Maurice Wrigley, treasurer of the Jordan Marsh Company.

PENALIZES BUYING IN HUB.

"Is it wise to impose a tax upon retail trade that will put a premium upon trading out of town and a penalty upon trading in Boston? The rate of taxation upon the real estate of this concern was in 1913, $17.20 and in 1919, $23.60.

"If this excise tax is added it means that the rate of tax upon our real estate would be raised upon last year's real estate valuation to between $55 and $60 per $1,000.

"This direct tax against business done in Boston is presumably to be passed on to the consumer.

"This 1 per cent. excise tax upon gross sales would run from 300 to 400 per cent. more than the government luxury tax. It would be a tremendous and costly job to collect this tax, and we are opposed to its being put upon business."

C. L. U. OPPOSES.

Wrigley declared that if the war bonus plan is passed by Congress a large portion would have to be paid in taxation by the concern he represented. He declared the new corporation tax would increase those taxes from 20 to 25 per cent. for his concern and declared the proposed excise tax is wrong in principle."

P. H. Jennings, secretary of the Boston Central Labor Union, declared that organization is opposed to the excise because it puts a tax upon productive businesses and occupations.

Leon Strauss of the Leopold Morse Company declared the tax was wrong and that it would be very unpopular.

"There is now a general protest against the price of merchandise manifesting itself in overalls clubs and old clothes clubs," he said. "The low wage earner and the salaried man are taxed enough and the retail dealer is obliged to charge too much. As a merchant I protest against any further increase in prices through taxes."

PREFER DOUBLE FEDERAL TAX.

Strauss and Wrigley declared if they had to make a choice of two evils they would favor a duplication of the Federal luxury tax.

Frank Ross, representing the Boston Real Estate Exchange, opposed the excise, saying it is based upon the gross earnings, not the net earnings.

"The State taxes us one and one-half per cent. upon net earnings, but this tax being upon the gross receipts would impose a tax 33 1-3 per cent. more than the State tax," he said.

Patrick J. McArdle, representing the Massachusetts Undertakers' Association, declared if the tax were imposed upon undertakers they might retaliate by collecting the 25 cents to which they are entitled for each burial return made to the city. They have not done so to date, he said.

THEATRES PROTEST.

Frank S. Waterman, an undertaker, declared corporations of this kind were bearing all the burden of taxation they cared to assume. They already have to pay a business tax to the city of Boston and will have an additional one if this tax is levied.

Judge J. A. Brackett, representing the Theatre Managers' Association, declared if the government luxury tax on theatres were duplicated by the city it would mean that a theatre doing $500,000 business would have to pay $5,000 per year, which might represent 25 per cent. of the net income.

E. M. Hodgdon, secretary of the Massachusetts Real Estate Exchange, opposed the tax, and favored an investigation of city departments by efficiency experts to cut down expenses.

Julius H. Serra, representing the Barbers' Union, declared most master barbers were now operating at a loss, and opposed the tax. So also did R. H. Codman, a real estate operator, A. M. Burroughs, representing the Pawnbrokers' Association, and Alvin E. Briggs, representing the Food Products' Exchange.

Outdo Maxim Silencer by Muffling Snores

Memphis, April 30.—Frequent complaints that the snoring of some passenger on the crack Panama Limited of the Illinois Central railroad has disturbed the rest of other passengers has set a lot of inventive geniuses working overtime.

The result of this concentrated brain work was an announcement by the general passenger agent that the Panama Limited's sleeping cars will be equipped with a device to prevent travelers from snoring.

AMERICA MUST KEEP HER POSITION, SAYS BANKER

Pinehurst, N. C., April 30.—"Neither little Americans nor peanut politicians should keep America from taking her rightful position among the nations of the world," declared Francis H. Sisson, president of the Guaranty Trust Company, in a stirring address to the American Bankers' Association on the nation's international position.

LEGION POSTS PLAN MANY RIFLE CLUBS

The move to establish rifle clubs among all Legion posts of the State, whereupon they will receive rifles and ammunition from the government free, is receiving the entire support of State Legion headquarters. Arrangements are being made to obtain the use of the two State rifle ranges at Wakefield and Natick for the use of Legion members in rifle and pistol competitions.

Tells Fat People Perverted Craving

For Wrong Foods Must Be Overcome.

Says Arbolone Tablets Does This and Reduces Weight, Too.

The person who is too fat is told to diet and the very things that a perverted appetite craves are the ones "you must not eat." Obesity is unnatural. It is like an endless chain. Eating wrong foods in the wrong way produces a perverted appetite. Then the appetite demands and craves the wrong foods and converts them into needless, embarrassing fat. Tablets Arbolone stops the perverted craving for the wrong foods, gives a normal appetite, eliminates the fat-forming elements through kidneys and bowels, dissolves the fatty surplus and sends it back through eliminative channels, causing improved health and strength. One or two tubes will convince any fat person that Arbolone is what they need to reduce safely and successfully. Sold by thirty thousand druggists in sealed tubes with full directions. —Advertisement.

Freckles and Blotches Are Easily Peeled Off

If you are bothered with any cutaneous blemish, it's a poor plan to use paint, powder or anything else to cover it up. Too often this only emphasizes the defect. Besides, it's much easier to remove the disfigurement with ordinary mercolized wax. Applied nightly, the wax will gradually remove freckles, pimples, moth patches, liver spots, sallowness, red blotches or any surface eruption. The affected cuticle is actually absorbed, a little each day, until the clear, soft, youthful and beautiful skin beneath is brought wholly to view.

Ask the druggist for one ounce of mercolized wax and use this like you use cold cream. Remove in the morning with soap and water. Many who have tried this simple, harmless treatment report astonishing results.—Advertisement.

REPRIEVED MEN THANK MOTHERS

"Funny How They Stick to Their Kids," Says One of Four Saved From Chair

By International News Service.

Ossining, N. Y., April 30.—The cases of Joseph Milano, James Cassidy, Joseph Usefof and Charles McLaughlin, who escaped death in the electric chair by six hours last night, when Governor Smith granted them a two weeks' respite, will be reviewed, it was announced today.

The respite was the result of a plea of Supreme Court Justice Mitchell, the trial judge, who told the Governor he had received new evidence.

A determined effort will be made by the lawyers for Usefof to save him from execution. He was said to have been only an onlooker when a subway station agent was shot to death during a robbery.

The condemned men were given news of the respite while they were eating what the prison calls the "last supper." The mother of Milano had just been escorted from the death chamber. A trusty was entering with four steaming steaks. Warden Lawes then stepped in the room.

"I have good news for you gentlemen," he announced. Milano was weeping; the other three sat speechless.

"Executive clemency prescribes that each of the following shall be granted at least two weeks' respite," said the warden, reading the names of the four men.

The death chamber rang with cheers as the news was passed along by the convicts. Milano almost collapsed, while his companions were struck dumb.

Later Cassidy said: "I give credit to the mothers of Usefof and Milano. Funny how the mothers stick to their kids."

Milano, who confessed he fired the shots which killed the station agent, said: "Our mothers—we always appreciate them too late. I wish we had all known our mothers better long ago."

His mother, when told of this, said: "I never lost hope. A mother never does. They bear all the burdens of the world. I cannot think my boy is bad, and I have worked too hard to give him up to the chair."

Brookline Pupils in 'Old Clothes' Drive

Pupils of the Brookline High School, in the richest town in the country, have started an "old clothes" campaign. Mrs. Alice Spalding, teacher of English, and Principal Akers approve.

Today members of the sophomore English class appeared in garments that had long been discarded. Tattered sweaters adorned mothers' darlings who rolled up to school in their own autos.

It was a beggarly brigade that filed into sophomore English, the girls in skirts that were too short and too shiny, the boys with conspicuous patches on the seats of their jeans.

The sweat shirt was supreme; not a coat matched the trousers it was paired with, and "darns" and "set ins" on schoolboy elbows and knees were noticeable.

The "old clo's" movement was started by Hubert Canning, who wore a five-year-old "hand me down" from the family rag bag.

At the premises of Herman Rand on North Main street, this city, 225 cases, each containing twelve quarts of whiskey, and five barrels of whiskey, were found, the police say. The police arrested three truck drivers, Samuel Jacob, Benjamin Schoenfield and M. Weisburger, all of New York city. The police allege that the liquor came from Newark, N. J.

London Authors and Press Are Aroused at Acts of Hoodlumism in Theatre

London, April 30.—Laurette Taylor's premier in "A Night in Rome" was broken up by an organized demonstration of Hooliganism.

United States Ambassador Davis and his wife and David Belasco, in addition to other well-known persons, were present and witnessed the demonstration against the management which came from the gallery.

There was persistent and continuous interruption of the performance, the demonstrators being armed with vile smelling "bombs" and "electric" puff powders. No such scene has been witnessed in London in many years.

Manager Cochran stopped the performance in the second act, announcing he would not permit Miss Taylor to be insulted. He announced the show would reopen Saturday night.

"I cannot think the demonstration was directed against me," said Miss Taylor, who is an American. "I have always found the British appreciative of American actors and actresses and a demonstration of this sort is quite unlike England."

English actors, including Haddon Chambers, Forbes Robertson, Gerald Dumarier, Cyril Maude, Dennis Eadie and Robert Loraine, joined in writing a letter to the Times to express their "extreme indignation."

Several newspapers take particular pains to point out that the demonstration was not to be interpreted as "anti-American feeling."

Chats With Child While Robbing House

Bridgewater, April 30.—While chatting with a neighbor's child, a burglar ransacked the house of Wladyslaw Mascudequiez on Ball street, robbing a small bank of a child in the family and taking a bank book which he later presented at the Bridgewater Savings Bank, withdrawing the family savings, amounting to $340.

The burglar, who entered the house while the tenants were away, was unsuccessful in an attempt to open a strong box containing Liberty bonds and jewelry.

'LITTLE GIRLS' IN MAY DAY PLAY

Wellesley College Students Begin Their Annual Revels at Sunrise Tomorrow

"Little girls" in short dresses, half hose, and wearing bows in their hair will "play" on the campus at Wellesley College tomorrow in the annual May Day revels. The participants will be the members of all classes.

The revels will begin at sunrise, and the traditional hoop-rolling will take place at 7:15 a. m., while Professor Hamilton MacDougall plays the senior class song in the chapel. At 8:20 the sophomore class will form their numerals.

The "little girl" program will occupy the afternoon, when there will be a prize contest for the prettiest and the funniest costumes.

There will be old-fashioned lollipops to suck, balloons to play with, ice cream cones and a hurdy-gurdy.

Miss Elizabeth Head of Bangor, Me., president of the freshman class, will be crowned "Elizabeth, Queen of England" near Longfellow Pond, where she will hold court, with a retinue of ladies, knights and pages.

Helen Barnard of Mount Vernon, N. Y., senior president, will be dressed as a cardinal, attended by prelates. Two Maypoles and a ball game will furnish entertainment.

In the evening the sophomores will sing their crew songs, and sorority houses will be open.

PAPORELLA'S PUPILS IN DANCE RECITAL

The annual dance recital by pupils of Madame Maria Paporella occurred last evening in Jordan Hall. There was a large attendance and the former ballet mistress of the Boston Opera introduced more than a score of highly skilful exponents of the ballet. A large orchestra furnished music and an Italian ballet new to Boston was presented entitled "The Magic Parrot." Some of the children who appeared were very tiny and others were blooming young women. The affair drew a lot of social attention.

Poker Game 'Law' for Cheats, Says Judge

New York, April 30. — Poker-playing Americans have a way of their own in dealing with card cheats—and it does not usually result in a court action, according to Magistrate Dale, who said in the Bridge Plaza Police Court:

"A cheat in the real American game of poker is not usually brought into court, but thrown out of the window."

This comment was made when Samuel Braun, aged thirty, of Brooklyn, was charged by Samuel Goodman, of the same address, with using "readers," or cards whose design on the back can be read readily by one who knows how. The cards, which were shown in court were decorated on the back with a bird design, and variations in the wing feathers revealed what each card was. Magistrate Dale held the prisoner for trial in $300 bail.

U. S. MUST GET OIL ELSEWHERE

Chief Geologist Says Peak of Oil Production Is Nearly Reached Here

Washington, April 30. — America has nearly reached the peak of oil production and must consider "promptly the acquisition of foreign oil reserves," or face a shortage, according to a statement secured today from David White, chief geologist of the United States Geological Survey.

While the estimate of the available oil in the ground in 1908 was as high as 19,962,000,000 barrels, the estimate of the oil available today is but approximately 6,740,000,000 barrels, according to Dr. White.

"The consumption curve is destined during the next year, and probably longer, to continue its present general trend beyond the 400,000,000-barrel mark, which it nearly reached in 1918," Dr. White stated. "On the other hand, whether the domestic production can be increased in volume to correspond to the consumption remains to be seen.

"On the whole, even with prices stimulating the driller to greater efforts, it seems unlikely that the domestic production of petroleum can at best gain appreciably on the reasonably expected increase in consumption. It seems more probable that unless consumption is restrained by high costs, the gap between consumption and production will continue to widen. In any event this gap must be filled with oil from other sources. Further exhaustion of stocks is a certainty that can be successfully minimized only by still larger importation.

"The situation demands not only the prevention of waste but the most economical and efficient use of our oil."

FILMS IN CLASS WITH BOOKS

Walsh Bill Regulating Shipments Approved by Senate Judiciary Committee

The Judiciary Committee of the United States Senate has made a favorable report on the bill introduced by Congressman Walsh of Massachusetts, at the request of the National Association of the Motion Picture Industry. The bill amends the penal code by placing motion picture films in the same classification with books and other printed matter.

This bill makes it a misdemeanor to ship in interstate commerce or in the United States mail any improper or immoral film, the same as it is a misdemeanor now to send an improper book or any printed matter.

By approving this bill Congress will support the contention of the National Association in censorship and other matters that there should be no discrimination between the printed word on paper or parchment or a printed picture on a film and projected on a screen. The printed word is protected from censorship by a provision of the Federal Constitution, as well as by every State Constitution, and the same protection is demanded for the newer art.

The enactment of this law will be regarded as an answer to those persons who are asking for new laws for what they call the "protection" of the screen. Any person exhibiting any indecent or immoral film cannot only be prosecuted under the laws of the State, but if that film is sent in the mail or in interstate commerce there can also be a persecution in the Federal courts.

SUFFRAGISTS RENEW FIGHT

Charge Delay by Both Democrats and Republicans to Prevent Ratification

By International News Service

Washington, April 30.—The last remaining chance for women to get the right to vote in the national elections next November is hanging by a thread thinner than gossamer. In the view of National Woman's party leaders here today there remains but a shred of hope that the suffrage amendment to the Constitution will be ratified in time to give women a voice in naming the next president of the United States.

[illegible] at which suffrage leaders [illegible] for the rest they admit [illegible] considerable bitterness against both Democrats and Republicans because of the delayed ratification.

Charges may soon be levelled against both parties for blocking [illegible] votes for women.

Admittedly an unknown quantity, the women's vote might toss upon the scrap heap the expert calculations of professional politicians and for this reason many feminists believe that Republicans or Democrats are [illegible] anxious to hasten ratification.

Miss Alice Paul of New Jersey, chairman, with other members of the National Executive Committee of the Woman's party, however, refuse [illegible] and are engaged in leading [illegible] charged against the amendment's enemies.

[illegible] States continue to be regarded as possibilities.

[illegible] needed to make suffrage sure for while one will make the necessary thirty-six States, one may have to drop out of line [illegible] a legal technicality.

The five States offering ground for this hope are Delaware, Louisiana, North Carolina, Connecticut and Vermont. Delaware is described as doubtful, with the rest more so. Feminists here admit Vermont and Connecticut might as well be counted out, so slim is the chance of action in time to be of service this year.

SIMMONS COLLEGE TO HAVE "HEALTH WEEK"

Exhibits, illustrated lectures and demonstrations on preventive and curative medicine and hygiene will feature Simmons College "Health Week," to begin Monday, it was announced today by Professor Curtis M. Hilliard of the college biology and health departments. A model of the town of Wellesley will be shown, demonstrating the spread of epidemics, red lamps lighting to indicate the start of each new disease. How to clothe and dress babies will be shown on "Children's Day." Infants will be weighed and tagged.

NEWTON NURSE FREED OF MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

"I am very glad that it is over," said Miss Margaret E. [illegible], the twenty-three year old Newton nurse, who was found not guilty by a jury in the Norfolk County Superior Criminal Court of manslaughter in causing the death of Mrs. Mary [illegible] Lotz of Malden. The jury reported to Judge Webster Thayer at Dedham after deliberating four hours and fifty minutes. The first ballot was 8 to 4 for acquittal, then it changed to 9 to 3, and in all there were ten ballots taken before reaching a final agreement.

If frequent shaving irritates your skin use Resinol

Perhaps the daily shave makes your sensitive skin burn and smart, or it may cause a rash which is uncomfortable and embarrassing. RESINOL OINTMENT helps greatly to relieve and clear away such ailments, but RESINOL SHAVING STICK tends to prevent them entirely. Its rich, generous, non drying lather makes shaving a pleasure because no after-shaving lotions are necessary, and the face is left smooth cool and soft. Resinol products at all druggists.

IF you read our advertising, you may remember that for the past year or so we've been advising people to buy only what they actually needed, and to buy only goods of known quality that would give long service and satisfaction.

You may remember also that we have often expressed our regret at the rising cost of clothing and pledged ourselves to put forth every effort to keep prices down to the lowest possible level.

During the more than 25 years that we've been in the retail clothing business, we've never deviated from our policy of small profits on a large volume of business. With redoubled efforts along this line, and assisted by the large increase in the combined business of our eight stores, we are now doing business on the narrowest margin of profit we ever attempted to operate on, and shall continue to supply the best merchandise in the market at the lowest possible prices.

We are selling good, all-wool, splendidly made suits at $35 and $40. We are selling the finest fabrics produced, tailored in the best possible manner, at $50, $55 and $60. We are selling a few at higher prices, but they come in the luxury class because of the silks and satins that go into them. And we are selling some suits—good, all wool suits—as low as $30.

We'd be glad to quote lower prices if we could, but none of these suits can be sold for any less. To mark any one of them down would entail an actual financial loss. And the same holds true for any merchant whose prices were right to start with.

TRAIN KILLS FIREMAN IN HOOSAC TUNNEL

North Adams, April 30.—William F. [illegible]

QUOTES BIBLE TO DOWN 'SHARKS'

Money Lenders' Measure Killed in House by Heavy Voice Vote

[illegible] a heavy fire of both Republican and Democratic leaders [illegible] [illegible] loan shark bill was [illegible] the House of Representatives [illegible]

[illegible] vote against the bill was [illegible] none of its few friends [illegible] a divisional or roll [illegible]

[illegible] Representative Roland D. Sawyer [illegible] declared [illegible] would [illegible] law [illegible] advantage of people [illegible] circumstances.

[illegible] present law, said Sawyer, [illegible] lenders are limited [illegible] per cent a month but [illegible] they [illegible] charge the small [illegible] per cent a month or 60 per cent a year.

[illegible] written, 'If thy brother be waxen poor and in distress, thou shalt not lend to him upon interest. Thou shalt not take interest upon money or upon victuals or upon raiment given to the poor among them.'

TERMS OPPONENTS DEMAGOGUES.

Apparently the sole excuse for [illegible] bill is that the loan sharks cannot compete with the credit unions, but would the Legislature legalize [illegible] per cent a year for that alleged reason?"

Representative Sibert of Boston, supporting the bill, said that the attack was being made upon the bill by demagogues.

Well, retorted Representative [illegible] of Haverhill, "if that is so I am ready to be classed as a demagogue. It would be well for the legislature to pause before enacting legislation of this character in this year of profiteering."

Representative B[illegible] of Boston said the debate had elicited one point in favor of the loan sharks—"they are one degree higher than a pawnbroker."

"Let the credit unions do this work for the poor," he said. "From a very small beginning they have grown to sixty associations with $2[illegible] of assets and [illegible] loans to poor people in one year of $[illegible]. The average loan shark will beat the borrower out of his last cent," said Representative Higgins of Taunton.

FIND JOKER IN BILL.

"The credit unions are able to take care of all poor borrowers," said Representative Litchfield of Revere. "Loans which the sharks refuse are taken with safety by the unions."

Representative Brown of Brockton, who was removed from the office of supervisor of small loans during the administration of Governor Davis, [illegible] defended the interest [illegible] as a necessary protection for the poor.

"It is pathetic to hear him arguing for the loan sharks," said Representative Sawyer. "Let us answer him by killing the bill."

Representative Me[illegible]en of Charlestown said that "people won't always be deluded by these shop fakirs," and Mr. Brown replied that his removal from the office was the only time in his life when anyone had a chance to swing a small "pail at me when it was not deserved."

Just before the bill was killed Representative McCormack of Boston discovered another joker tucked away. [illegible] joker would wipe out of the present law the provision which [illegible] a loan shark from demanding and accepting an assignment of wages for a small loan.

Representative Young of Weston moved that the interest allowance be reduced from [illegible] per cent to 3½ per cent. That was done. He then said he had no objection to the bill being rejected and it was.

10-Cent Coffee Starts Lunchroom Probe

Chicago, April 30.—Government attorneys in Chicago have started another high cost of living investigation.

This time it has to do with the action of profiteering lunchroom proprietors who have raised the price of coffee, which costs them only two cents per cup, including cream and sugar, to retail at 10 cents a cup.

Many restaurant owners have boosted the prices of sandwiches to 15 and 25 cents.

The parents of the girl fear that she may have been lured away by some man, although she was known to have few male acquaintances. The girl, who is fourteen, is large for her age and would [illegible] be in her late teens. She [illegible] when she [illegible] handbag. RABBIT CATCHERS FOR HAT TRADE GET $160

New York, April 30.—"I have been advised that Australian rabbit catchers now are earning as much as $160 a week," says Aaron Naumberg, president of the Hatters' Fur Cutters' Association, just returned from Europe. Mr. Naumberg asserts that rabbit skins that sold for 18 pence the pound (a dozen) in 1913 now are selling for 360 pence.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel, now and then just to keep them fit. 10c and 25c.

MURRAY TO BOX DAVE POWERS

Roxbury Fistic Star and Veteran Malden Campaigner in C. A. C. Ring Tonight

By RINGSIDE.

Three ten-round bouts and a six-session battle are expected to furnish the fans plenty of thrills at the Commercial A. C. tonight.

The final ten round number will bring together Johnny Murray, Roxbury welterweight, and Dave Powers of Malden. Murray is the latest local star to burst on the pugilistic horizon. He is a straight, hard puncher as he proved by beating Soldier Woods at the Armory club.

Young Good of Brockton, who doesn't believe in doing anything but fight when in the ring, will swap blows with Green Alger of the South End. Bat Woods of Manchester, N. H., and Johnny [illegible], the promising Roxbury lightweight, will be the young men to furnish the excitement in the other ten-session affair.

Young Dillon of Cambridge says he will dispose of Hambone Kelley of the South End in the opening six-round mill.

Kilonis and Bruce Post Forfeits

John Kilonis and Gene Bruce have both posted their forfeits for their meeting at the Grand Opera House Thursday night, when they will wrestle to a finish. As Bruce is as rugged and rough as Kilonis the session will probably result in a match that will be as full of fireworks as anything seen here in years.

Young Gibbs and Bloom in Woonsocket Bout

Young Joe Gibbs, a member of Eddie Mack's fast growing stable of glove wielders, will operate against Phil Bloom of Brooklyn at Woonsocket tonight in a twelve round bout. Gibbs is a rushing two handed fighter and avers that his punch will gain him the honors. Bloom has met about every lightweight in the country worth while and avers he will show the Woonsocket boy a few new twists in the dear old game of hit and get away.

Marlboro will be out on the fistic map tonight with a twelve round tussle between Vincent Martin of the city and Billy Fitzsimmons of the sea as a feature. Martin's punching ability has enabled him to run up a respectable number of victories since he started campaigning in this section of the country. Fitzsimmons has traded blows with Al Shubert, Joe Lynch, Kid Williams, Dick Loadman, Jack Sharkey, Memphis Pal Moore and some of the other blue ribbon performers and does not believe he will have a hard time winning.

Schoell and Hartley Signed by Armory A. A.

Frankie Schoell, Buffalo lightweight, will oppose Pete Hartley of New York in the feature bout of twelve rounds at the Armory A. A.'s show at the Grand Opera House next Tuesday night. Schoell proved he possesses plenty of class by the way he beat Cleveland Johnny [illegible] at the Commonwealth Club Monday night.

YOUNG WOLGAST FINDS IT HARD TO GET BOUTS

Young Wolgast of Malden is still seeking a bout. It seems that our local featherweights don't want any of Wolgast's game. It was reported along the Rialto today that Kid Francis is teaching the Malden puncher how to score with a new punch which is said to create a sleeping sensation.

LEAGUE-LEADING BROOKLYN TEAM OPENS SERIES WITH BRAVES

PHILS WIN GETAWAY BATTLE

Meadows and Fillingim Both Hurl Excellently, but Errors Undo Latter's Chances

By NICK FLATLEY.

Wilbert Robinson of Flatbush and first place in the National League has arrived in our midst with his flying collection of athletes, to try to take advantage of the Braves and the weather, from now till next Tuesday. Wilbert and Co. have been hitting the high spots ever since the curtain went up, and figure that they just about have the pennant won already.

[illegible] were more or less sanguine regarding the local heroes as they gathered in three in a row while the [illegible] were visiting Brooklyn, and have more pitchers than a country road has curves and bumps. On the other hand, though, the Braves were in a [illegible] sort of mood, remembering the three frays aforementioned, and also yesterday's disaster at the hands of the Phils.

Dana Fillingim continued to labor under the hard [illegible] that has [illegible] him for quite some time and was defeated 1 to 0, even though he hurled one of the best games seen in these parts for some time. That one hostile run was a gift, pure and simple, coming when a muff at the plate exploded a hard fought battle in the seventh chapter.

Dodgers Have League's Best Hurling Staff

Uncle Wilbur escorted so many heavers to the Tepee that picking one was like trying to get a phone number. His ace, big Jeff Pfeffer, has had a long rest and seemed most likely to go. In case of Jeff not feeling well, Bobby [illegible] Grimes, and Mamaux, not to mention Cadore and Smith in reserve. These five fingers, together with Rube Marquard and Clarence Mitchell as well as a few others, make up the most powerful looking collection of sharp shooters in the dear old league.

Even Pat Moran's flock can't claim a bit on them in class or [illegible] or [illegible]. The rest of the outfit are more or less familiar to Boston fans, with the exception of Neis, who has horned into the outfield and is sticking there. It was a lucky break for the enemy, as it gave Johnston an opportunity to assume third base, which looked like a soft spot until [illegible] showed he could fill it very [illegible].

Speaking of pitchers reminds us that the Braves were not at all short for the present series. McQuillan, Jones, [illegible] who has recovered from his cold, Rivers, likewise convalesced, Hearn and Oeschger were ready to answer the call. Indications were that McQuillan, who has evidenced great form as a relief star, would get a chance to see what he could do starting a game.

[illegible] has been fussing with the fringe of stardom for quite a time, and Stallings [illegible] expect this to be his year. He has worked [illegible] was anxious to acquire [illegible] and succeeded, [illegible] efforts to date count for [illegible]. With very little exception the Braves' hurling this season has been the very best and if McQuillan can come through, Stallings will face his first invasion of the West, next week, with equanimity, whatever that is.

CYCLONE BURNS BEATS DRAAK

Veteran's Superior Skill Tells in Gruelling Match After Youth Had Won First Fall

Cyclone Burns by his defeat of Tommy Draak, the husky Hollander, at the Grand Opera House, made it plain that he is to be reckoned with for some time in catch-as-catch can wrestling. For although the old master lost the first fall of the match to Draak he displayed condition and form which, if pitted against Caddock and Londos again, might reverse at least one of the two verdicts against him this season.

Young Jack Norton of Medford showed rare promise in his first professional bout when pitted against the heavier and more experienced Jack Gertwell. Gentwell won in 28 minutes 2[illegible] seconds with a head scissors and body hold, but not before Norton had palpably distressed him and shown much skill in breaking holds.

BOLTON CHOSEN CAPTAIN OF HARVARD RIFLE TEAM

For the fourth consecutive year, Stanwood K. Bolton '21, of Shirley, Mass., was elected captain of the Harvard 1920 rifle team. He is one of the best marksmen on the squad and [illegible] the highest [illegible] of [illegible] matches this season. The Cambridge team won fifteen matches, [illegible] the one with Yale, and lost three.

Red Sox and Yankees Open Four-Game Tilt

New York, April 30.—The Red Sox opened a four-game drive against the Yankees as a much improved ball club. Picked to slump badly from the very start of the season, the Barrow clan is plugging along right merrily, and today has a clear title to premiership in the American League.

The stay in Philadelphia was not altogether unprofitable. Two games were won, one tied and one postponed. With the even break secured in Washington the Red Sox record for the trip is four games won and two lost, not a half-bad traveling record for a supposed second division team.

The Athletics are a queer lot. Wednesday they held the Sox to a fourteen-inning tie, which only ended when darkness hit Philadelphia. In the final game Barrow's little flock of aspiring athletes naturally concluded they would have to work every inning of the time or more to quell the home team and went out to the ball park all "pepped up." A former player could have been excused [illegible] wary about placing any bets on the proteges of Host Cornelius McGillicuddy, but he needn't have [illegible].

Game Presented to Sox on Platter

The fray was presented to the league leaders on a platter of sterling silver. In fact it was spilt off said platter onto the laps of the Sox just to make sure they couldn't avoid taking it, 7 to 1. That doesn't half tell the tale. The [illegible] half be told. On fitting [illegible] the most [illegible] sixteenths [illegible] sixteen [illegible] players [illegible] was hurling ball [illegible] that no [illegible] could [illegible] to criticize, even if he had been turned down a couple of times on free tickets.

For today's tilt Barrow had the youthful Hoyt warming up, while Huggins decided to pin his faith on Thormahlen, who hasn't been as bad as some other Yank hurlers this year.

The Widow's Lorgnette

By HELEN ROWLAND

Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

"THERE, I won't ask it another thing!"

The Widow pushed the Ouija board away from her, with a petulant gesture, and settled her silver tulle draperies back in the rose brocade chair, with an air of aggrieved finality.

"Perhaps you weren't—er—en rapport," suggested the Bachelor, soothingly.

"That's no reason why it should answer me like a husband!" retorted the Widow. "When I asked it whether I should go to the masquerade ball as Portia or as Carmen it answered 'YES!'"

"Meaning," exclaimed the Bachelor gallantly, "that you are both clever and charming. Presence of mind doesn't ALWAYS indicate absence of beauty, you know!"

The Widow thanked him with a smile, but appeared unmollified.

"And when I asked it whether I should marry again, it answered 'Ask B.' Now who on earth is 'B'? I've thought of Buddha and Beelzebub and—"

"I've got it!" broke in the Bachelor, waving his cigarette. "'B' stands for Bachelor! Why don't you ask me?"

"And," pursued the Widow, ignoring the suggestion, "when I asked it where you were all during supper and three waltzes and a foxtrot last night, it answered—"

"Oh, well," interrupted the Bachelor, hastily, "you can't believe anything a foolish little three-legged Ouija board says! Surely you don't take any of these new kinds of magic and fairy tales and ghost-walking affairs SERIOUSLY."

"Why not?" demanded the Widow. "I'm human! And the whole poor, dear human race has been desperately hunting for some new kind of 'magic' ever since Eve sought a seance with the serpent. If ever I have to earn my living, I'm going to invent a new kind of magic cure, or a recipe for eternal youth, or a love-charm, or something!" and she smiled complacently at the inspiration.

"I knew it! I knew it!" cried the Bachelor, waving his hand triumphantly. "I knew you had a magic cure all up your sleeve! Everybody has! Well, what's yours? Out with it!"

"It's love," said the Widow simply. "Just being in love or falling in love. As long as you can do either of these, you will be eternally young and happy. As long as you can keep your heart sweet and glowing and radiant, your face will be sweet and glowing and radiant."

"But, great Scott!" exclaimed the Bachelor. "You are not setting Solomon and Ninon de l'Enclos up as good examples, are you?"

"Certainly not," said the Widow. "One love will serve as well as a hundred if you will only cherish it and keep the divine fire from going out!"

"Well," suggested the Bachelor, timidly, "don't you—don't you think we could?"

The Widow smiled [illegible]

"Let's ask Ouija!" she suggested, jumping up with sudden inspiration and sitting down at the table.

"Wait! No! Wait a minute!" cried the Bachelor, "let ME ask him—her—it! Nice Ouija! Pretty Ouija! Tell me—could Molly and I be happy forever and ever?"

For a moment there was no sound in the room except the scratching of the board.

"There!" exclaimed the Widow as the scratching ceased, "what did I tell you? It talks just like a HUSBAND!"

"Why, what did it say?" inquired the Bachelor.

"It said, 'Don't ask foolish questions,'" answered the Widow. "And when I asked it where you were during all those four dances last night——"

"Yes, yes! Go on! What did I say?" said the Bachelor, uneasily.

"It said, 'See Browning, page 44, line 18.'"

"And—"

"And I looked it up," admitted the Widow. "But there were only two words in the line. They were 'Never pry!'"

The Bachelor leaned back with a sigh of vast relief.

"After all," he said, "there may be something in this Ouija board fad. It's given me quite a pleasant thrill!"

NEW STEEL COMBINE TALK IS PERSISTENT

The rumor that there is to be a big merger of steel companies persists and concerns mentioned include the Bethlehem Corporation, Lackawanna and Midvale. It would seem doubtful, however, if anything of the kind is likely to be consummated as long as the Department of Justice continues its Supreme Court campaign against the U. S. Steel Corporation.

The current story is that a big consolidation is planned after long negotiations and that the largest financial institutions in the country are interested. The object sought is reduction of costs and mutual production advantages. The three corporations mentioned in connection with the combine have an aggregate working capital close to $200,000,000 and present ingot capacity approximating 7,500,000 tons a year.

March Wool Consumption

The Department of Agriculture reports that wool consumption in this country during March amounted to 67,500,000 pounds, grease basis. This compares with 74,000,000 pounds in the corresponding 1919 month and with 71,900,000 pounds consumed in March 1918.

GERMAN CITY BONDS

BONDS of the chief German Cities, including Berlin, Bremen, Frankfort and Hamburg, can be purchased at prices to net nearly 50% interest and profits considerably in excess of 1000%, providing coupons and bonds are held until the Mark returns to normal.

These bonds are guaranteed by the entire property and tax-levying power of the issuing Cities, bear interest, are readily marketable and benefit by any increase in value of the Mark.

We have reprinted (by permission of THE MAGAZINE OF WALL STREET) the best article we have seen on German Exchange and will send a copy on request.

IT'S WHITE AND $1.20

An INCREASED INCOME is the only means of offsetting the Vicious Circle of constantly advancing prices. Think that over.

Federal investigations, State investigations and Strikes result in nothing but higher prices. Prices laugh the law to scorn and somebody is behind them holding the bag.

What are you going to do about it?

No matter whom you vote for or what party is in power, prices continue to climb. How about your income? YOUR INCOME is the only thing that can help you any. And the only way to make it help you is to use your brain and INCREASE YOUR INCOME. It is up to you—to each individual—TO DO SOMETHING. There are ways in which you can invest your money and increase your income; but you have to investigate for yourself and use your own judgment in investing your own money.

Did you ever stop to think that the PEOPLE WHO MAKE MONEY NEVER ASK YOU how to do it? That's a fact, isn't it? Why not follow their plan and make some yourself? Pick out something that appeals to you and look into it. No humbug can stand the light of investigation.

We recommend that you investigate NEW SAFETY PAPER now. IT'S WHITE and safe, and it has all the elements of a highly successful business. It has unsolicited and unsought orders, brought into the office, for three times the business which it was estimated could be obtained the first year. If that doesn't MEAN BUSINESS what does it mean? You tell it. One-third of the orders will earn 30c a share or 25% on the present market price. Now is the time to get busy and DO SOMETHING to INCREASE YOUR INCOME.

Write us how much income you want and we will tell you how to obtain it. Our offices are open to your investigation.

STEEL AND RAIL ISSUES UP

Market Opens Weak, But Rallies Quickly; Trading of Moderate Volume

By W. H. ROSS,
Financial Editor.

Stocks were irregular in New York at noon, being below the best level of the morning. After showing strength after the opening, the market reacted somewhat in the second hour. But neither movement was pronounced. Few issues had a wide range, but exceptions were Crucible, General Motors, Baldwin and Woolen common.

They fluctuated from three to ten points. General Motors showed nine points loss at its lowest and Crucible was up seven at its highest. Trading was of moderate volume, first hour transactions totalling about 240,000 shares. Call money renewed at 8 per cent. Foreign exchange rates were a little lower at the start.

OFF AT THE OPENING.

A recessional movement started the market, there being two issues off where one showed gains. Initial losses were small but extended throughout the list. Overnight orders were to sell with few exceptions and diagnosticians said it was liquidation. It was remarked around Wall Street, where the descent of prices is viewed with more than usual concern, that the public is scared. Many who rode in joy are walking in gloom. Hilarity is kin to hysteria. The downward movement did not last long. Support may have ben given by banking and "inside" interests. But it was rendered quickly and within a few minutes the aspect was reversed and a majority of issues showed gains. Crucible Steel, selling ex-dividend 50 per cent in common stock, opened at 140 and advanced to 147 with half an hour. Sugars and oils displayed the most group strength at the opening and steels the most improvement during the rally. Rails developed a rather good tone, being led by Reading and Southern Pacific.

MONEY IS VERY SCARCE.

Money is not only very scarce, but there is no evidence that there will be any betterment of this situation for a long time. The shortage is world wide. Human society is seething with unrest, production of necessities is far below par and commodity prices cannot come down until the human kind does some arduous work. Reports from abroad are not reassuring. According to statements by cable, France is going to restrict buying in the American market, and wants the United States to pay a big proportion of Europe's war debt. Some of the legislation proposed at Washington is calculated to send shivers along the spine of business. And rumors that "Reds" have planned a May Day bomb fest in the land that has been the haven of the underpaid and oppressed of all other nations is not putting any calorie into the frigid atmosphere of a backward springtime. In a word, "visions on the horizon" are nightmares and "voices in the air" are uttering forebodings.

Canadian Pacific Report

The Canadian Pacific reports an increase of $3,341,754 in gross and of $418,720 in net earnings for March, while for three months the gain in gross was $6,720,932, but net decreased $816,092.

Cotton Market Opening

New York, April 30.—The cotton market had an irregular opening, first prices ranging from 15 points lower to 6 higher. Holiday eve, covering soon caused a rally which carried prices fifteen points above Thursday's close. Weather reports were generally favorable. Spot houses bought. Notices on about 1,000 bales were issued this morning under which May sold at 20 points under last night's close. Opening prices were: May, 40.25; June, 40.35; July, 38.20; October, 35.30; December, 34.47; January, 33.95; March, 33.10.

MIXED MARKET IN BOSTON

Price Irregularity Prevailed on Exchange All the Morning; Curb More Active

The price movement in Boston was irregular when the exchange opened and it remained so during the morning. The market was quiet and narrow also. Fluctuations averaged small and trading was on a moderate scale. It was devoid of interesting features. Greenfield Tap continued to advance. American Woolen preferred sold fractionally lower. It is proposed to increase this corporation's preferred stock from $40,000,000 to $60,000,000 and its common stock from $20,000,000 to $40,000,000. Coppers were indefinite as to trend and as quiet as usual. Auto accessory shares were listless. Packing issues were heavy.

Gains of a point or more were made during the forenoon by Ohio Body, Agricultural Chemical and Greenfield Tap. Among issues to move up fractionally were United Fruit, Calumet & Arizona, North Butte, Libby, Gray & Davis, Wickwire, Eastern Manufacturing and Carson Hill.

MORE LIFE TO CURB

The Curb showed a little more life at the opening than it had manifested for several days. There was nothing definite about the early price tendency. Boston & Montana featured the first hour. It began with a loss, but rallied and showed a gain. It was active. Stocks to recede at the start included Gilliland, White Oil, Imperial and Submarine Boat. Among those to advance were Arizona Silver, which sold ex-dividend, Crystal, Seven Metals, Canada Mexico and Eureka.

By 11 o'clock Boston & Montana was up 10 cents at 92 cents, Arizona Silver 5 cents at 70 cents, Imperial 1 cent to 25 cents and Canada Mexico ½ at 9½. Losses included Mutual Trust 3 cents at 31 cents, Universal Silver 1 cent at 8 cents, Gilliland 1 at 36, White Oil at 26½ and United Verde ¼ at 33¾.

WILSON FILLS VACANCIES ON COMMERCE BOARD

Washington, April 30.—President Wilson has made his selections for the three vacancies on the Interstate Commerce Commission, completing the membership of eleven as provided for by the Esch-Cummins railroad bill. The President's secretary announced that the President was ready to send the three nominations to the Senate today. No hint was given as to who is in line for these $12,000-a-year jobs.

Bradley Co. Dividend

A Texas publication says in an April 24 issue: "Announcement of a 4 per cent. dividend, payable the last of this month was made by C. A. Bradley, president of The Bradley Company yesterday. The Bradley Company is operating a string of pools in the shallow sand of the Humble field and is completing a well about every two weeks. Last Fall the price of the oil from that field was $1 per barrel, and it is now bringing $3 per barrel with a thirty-five-cent premium."

U. S. Gaining on Britain

The United States is gaining on Great Britain in pig iron production. In 1913 production by the latter country was about 34 per cent. as much as was turned out in the United States. But in March, this year, Great Britain's output was only about 25 per cent. in comparison. The March production of 3,375,907 tons in the United States compares with 699,000 tons by Great Britain.

Boston Exchange to Close

The Boston Stock Exchange and the Boston Curb Exchange will be closed tomorrow. Exchanges throughout the country are declaring a holiday until Monday because the New York Bourse will hold no session. New York closed to give brokers a chance to move into new offices on May 1.

Wall Street Briefs

A statement from New York says there has not been one year in the last fifteen in which the business of the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. has not increased. It increased its gross earnings in 1919 over 1918 by $3,400,000. In 1919 there were added to the company's lines more than 53,000 new customers. It now has 520,000 customers and 115 different industries are served.

The Imperial Bank of Germany reports that on April 15 its gold holdings amounted to 1,091,000,000 marks.

Gold production in Rhodesia in March amounted in value to £250,000 for February and £211,851 for January.

The report of Canada's chartered banks shows that on April 20 $311,032,931 Dominion notes were in circulation against gold deposits of $100,286,280.

Copper buying by England and France on Wednesday last is reported to have totalled 6,000,000 pounds.

Mitsui & Co. have been informed that funds furnished for foreign exchange and the stock and silk markets by the Bank of Japan amounted to $60,000,000.

CLOTHIERS DENY BIG PROFITS

Blame Labor Pay Increases and High Cost of Wool for Soaring Prices

Boston retail clothing dealers today took issue with the National Industrial Conference Board and refused to be made the scapegoat for the increased cost of clothing. No one would permit his name to be used in connection with any statements.

Several of the large clothing house representatives declared they were making not over 5 per cent. over gross expenses and all cited the increase cost of labor as one of the fundamentals for the clothing increase.

The wool market, shattered by the war, is also cited as one of the contributing factors. America, it is stated, never produced wool enough for its own use. If the wool now in the market was distributed per capita it would only furnish fourteen ounces to a person, or enough to make one pair of knickerbockers. A corresponding shortage in the shoddy market is cited as another contributory feature.

LABOR COST 254 P.C. HIGHER.

Cost of labor in the manufacture of clothing has increased 254 per cent. since 1913, the manufacturers declared.

One of the prominent clothing men in Boston said, "We used to figure the cost of a suit of clothes two-thirds material and one-third labor. Today we figure one-third material and two-thirds labor and the price of materials is far and away in excess of anything before experienced.

"In 1914 people in the clothing industry worked fifty-four hours a week. Now they work forty-four. In 1914 the average price paid per hour, taking three large manufacturers as a general basis, and in this same labor, by the same people help, was 22 cents per hour. Today this same labor, by the same people and doing the same work, averages 78 cents per hour.

"In 1914, when we bought a high-grade custom suit, we got a new wool suit. In the course of time this suit got to the ragman and went to the mills where it was converted into shoddy and you bought it back at the retail store in an average low-priced suit. In the course of time this suit found its way again to the mills and again it came out as shoddy, this time of a low grade, and was sold as a very low-priced suit.

"During the war millions upon millions of pounds of wool went to the armies in fighting clothes. These were destroyed. There was no passing along this immense amount of wool to the shoddy mill. The result is that the best and nearest substitute for wool which in the past has been the reserve strength of the market, did not appear. That wool was a total loss.

"Now wool is being mixed with cotton for the lower selling grades of suits and shoddy is scarce.

$15 SUIT NOW $50.

"We will take for instance the standard suit which sold for $15 pre-war days. The cloth in that suit cost $1.55 a yard. The trimmings cost around a doll[illegible] and the net cost was a little over [illegible]. It sold to the wholesaler for $10, a[illegible] appeared on general sale for $15. Today that same suit would bring about $50. Its cloth would cost $4.50 a yard or more. Its trimmings would cost around $4, bringing up the cost of material alone to more than what was originally paid for it. On top of that is the average of 254 per cent. more for the labor cost in manufacture, and increased price for sales, rents, etc.

"Let me give you a few figures on labor costs today: Pressmen, on an average for those employed, get $55 a week, while a few others receive $60 per week.

"On the maximum there is a pant operator working in one of the local houses who makes an average of $100 a week. Payroll slips show other branches of the industry making as high as $58 a week. And this is not skilled labor, in the broadest interpretation."

A comparative list of costs of materials furnished by the Clothing Manufacturers' Association reveals sharp advances since 1914, figuring, in some instances, more than 300 per cent.

$124.60 Week's Pay of Bushelman

He came to this country only a few years ago, and has not yet mastered the English language. He found work with many of his compatriots in what had been a sweat shop until they were legislated out of existence. He is a bushel man, which means that he presses newly made clothing. He showed his week's pay envelope and the money. In one week, without overtime and not too hard work, he received for salary $124.60.

Gold for Ceylon

Gold coin totalling $1,490,000 has been withdrawn from the New York sub-treasury for shipment to Ceylon. But the amount to be forwarded to Argentina on the present movement will not be $10,000,000 or more, as was expected. Withdrawals for that country total but $5,400,000.

ALMA TELL WINS NEW HONORS

Talented Actress Invests 'Susan Lenox' with Much Power of Original Story

By FRED J. McISAAC.

"Susan Lenox," in which Alma Tell is featured, is now installed at the Arlington Theatre, no longer a stock house, but under the banner of the Shuberts.

The play is by George V. Hobart, author of "Experience," and is suggested by the novel of the same name by David Graham Phillips. I say "suggested," because Hobart threw most of the book away and invented and inverted incidents which, in his opinion, were suitable for dramatic purposes.

"Susan Lenox" was perhaps the most daring book written in the English language during the past decade. It was a Zolaesque chronicle of the experiences of a young girl who never had a chance, who was betrayed and tossed about by fate, who descended into the lowest depths, was the plaything of many men, but whose courage never failed, and who finally dragged herself out of the mire and became a decent and respected member of society.

PRODUCTION GORGEOUS.

To take this book, preserve its character, and turn it into a play would take a greater dramatist than Hobart. He blandly ducked the main idea of the novel, and shuffled the incidents around until he had built a sensational melodrama, in eleven scenes, in which a blameless Susan had everything in the world in the way of misfortune dumped upon her until the end, when she found a noble husband who forgave and admired her.

Hobart is a canny carpenter. He knows what the gallery gods like and he knows that gallery gods now sit in the orchestra. He aims his lines at them and he has no compunction about using all the sure fire "hocum" of the old-fashioned melodrama to get his applause. And he gets it.

The Shuberts have given "Susan Lenox" a very gorgeous production and provided a cast of unusual skill. Very likely they know that Hobart's "Susan Lenox" stands a far better chance of success on the stage than one which clung closely to the ideas of David Graham Phillips. And Hobart knows how to build a thrilling scene.

Thus the incident of Susan's forced marriage to a brutal and drunken husband, his efforts to enforce his conjugal rights and her escape (in the book she didn't escape) is well done and finely played.

ALMA TELL SCORES.

The best thing about "Susan Lenox" is the work of Alma Tell. Miss Tell is gifted with a face and figure as lovely as Christy's famous illustrations for the Phillips novel. She combines with good looks an ability to act. Her taste and judgment never fail her and she is the one normal and natural person in the whole play. Even her most extravagant phrases she manages to make convincing.

Robert T. Haines, as the drunken husband, handled a hard and unpleasant role very well. Philip Lord, as the River Boat Showman, put across some good old hocum in good old style. Hobart is awfully hard on middle-class respectability, and contrasts the church-going relatives of Susan most unpleasantly with her innate nobility.

Harry D. Southard, as the young man who deceived Susan, did a good job with a highly contemptible character. Walter Walker, Marie Vernon and Ann Sutherland were satisfactory. The only heroic character in the piece besides Susie is Roderick Spencer, a department store proprietor. Perce Benton made him highly insignificant.

Measures That Would Cure Most of the Troubles and Tendencies Which Distress and Alarm Us Today

(1) To nominate for the Presidency by direct nomination and to elect by popular vote.
(2) To elect the Cabinet officers and make them responsible to Congress.
(3) To deprive the President of the power of patronage; to put public offices as nearly as possible under Civil Service, and have appointments made by a committee of Congress.
(4) To elect Federal Judges, including Supreme Court Justices, by popular vote.
(5) To apply the Initiative, the Referendum and the Recall to national matters.

American Soldiers Should Be Ordered From Europe

Representative W. E. Mason has introduced a resolution in the House, directing the Commander-in-Chief of the Army to bring all our soldiers in Europe home at once.

The Congress ought to pass this resolution.

In the first place, our troops should leave Europe because they have no further business there.

We went to war with Germany to put an end to submarine attacks upon American ships.

That has been accomplished. Germany has no submarines left.

After we had gone to war the President discovered that our object was to overthrow the then existing government of Germany and replace it with a democratic form of government.

That has been accomplished. Germany has a far more democratic government than has England, France or Italy—or than the United States has had since April, 1917.

The objects for which we sent troops to Europe have been obtained.

There is no good reason why our troops should remain in Europe, AT AN ENORMOUS COST TO AMERICAN TAXPAYERS.

Also, our troops are in Europe against the best opinion of the Congress, simply upon the order of Woodrow Wilson.

And the Constitution in plain language entrusts to the Congress, and not to the President, the control of the army.

It is a time when it is peculiarly necessary for the Congress to establish, once for all, its own rightful powers, and TO SET PERMANENT BOUNDS TO EXECUTIVE PRETENSION.

As President, Mr. Wilson has certain powers, definitely beyond Congressional control.

As Commander-in-Chief of the land and naval forces, he is subject to the authority of the Congress. And he ought to be taught that.

Had the Congress insisted upon its rightful powers, no American boys would have been slaughtered in Siberia or in Northern Russia, where they had no business to be, and where Mr. Wilson had no shadow of constitutional authority to order them sent.

The recent primary election in Michigan shows how the men themselves feel about their unlawful expedition to Siberia. It was Michigan men chiefly who were sent there by an autocratic and unconstitutional order, and they voted for Senator Johnson the way they did just to express their resentment and anger.

And the Congress ought to have the same courage of its convictions.

We are actually at peace with Germany, just as we are lawfully at peace with Russia, and there is no more sense in keeping an invading force in Germany than there was in sending illegally an invading force into Russia.

We gained only ridicule and contempt by the wretched expeditions into Russia, and the ill-will of a hundred million people who had almost worshipped the name of America.

We shall get nothing but loss of trade, loss of friendliness, loss of our national reputation for good sense by keeping American soldiers in Germany to play the political game of England and France, both of which merely seek to use us, and neither love us nor respect us for allowing ourselves to be used.

If you doubt that assertion, read the French and English press, or ask returning soldiers and civilians.

For months the President has not officially functioned, and even now the Administration is bumping along on flat tires.

The Congress ought to summon up its courage and put an end to the anomalous, ridiculous and costly condition of fictitious war, and to the useless and dangerous maintenance of an American invading force in a country with which we are really at peace, and from which we ask nothing that has not already been surrendered or granted.

Spending millions for real warfare can be tolerated or even applauded; but spending millions for a fictitious war, or a personal, opera bouffe war, is an insult to common sense and an intolerable burden upon an overtaxed people.

Postal Clerks Ought to Get What Is Plainly Due

The National Federation of Postoffice Clerks have made appeal direct to the President for some action which will both better their condition as regards pay and improve the service, which because of the great number of resignations is daily becoming more disorganized and inefficient.

In the statement delivered at the White House the clerks pointed out that the resignations in the New York postoffice were at the rate of ten a day and that this same depletion of forces was going on all over the country.

How much the delays in the handling of the mails are costing the business of the country cannot be estimated, but the interference with prompt transmission of business messages and the annoyance of uncertain service are not without big expense.

Under present conditions the regular men who remain in the service are called upon to do extra work because the raw recruits, doing the best they can, are not able to do efficient work.

The only way to restore the service to its former standards is to pay the clerks what they are worth; what their services would command in other employments making equal demands on time, ability and technical training.

The request of the clerks for consideration has been before the authorities for a long time. They are asking only for what they deserve. We cannot understand the apparent indifference and inactivity of their superiors in dealing with an acute situation.

Check the Bonus Grafters

When the bill was passed giving $60 extra pay to honorably discharged service men, by oversight no provision was made to protect them against unscrupulous attorneys or agents.

Harpies, therefore, wrought a harvest by collecting fees or commissions for unnecessary or merely nominal assistance.

If that could happen ere the glow of war enthusiasm had faded, the danger of it today is greater.

Congress should, therefore, be very careful in drafting the new bonus bill to make unnecessary the employment by any soldier of legal or other aid in the collection of what is due him.

Something Will Be Gained

By S. E. KISER

COME, let us join in hopeful song
And say farewell to fear;
If we have long been crushed by wrong,
Deliverance is near.
From East and West and North and South,
Each filled with brave intentions,
The delegates will soon set forth
To fill the big conventions.

THE orators, with flashing eyes,
Will shake their fists and sweat
And tell us how we may arise
And find contentment yet.
The platform builders will be there,
And they will get together
To banish all that is unfair,
Including wind and weather.

THE standard-bearers whom they choose
Will promise all we need,
And each will gallantly refuse
To heed the voice of Greed.
The bands will play, the flags will wave
On every spire and steeple;
New heroes will enlist to save
And serve the "common peepul."

THE cheering will be long and loud
And echo through the land;
A trusty few will rule the crowd
And keep it well in hand.
Their promises will all fall flat,
But don't condemn them lightly;
They'll give us cause to hope, and that
Will ease the pressure slightly.

THE SUN IS MERELY A FLYING ATOM

By Garrett P. Serviss

EVERY little while I receive a letter about the movement of the sun, an astronomical fact which seems to cause much surprise and misunderstanding. Some think it means that the sun is revolving around the earth, as the ancients supposed that it did; others inquire how it is possible that the sun can move without leaving the planets, or, if they go along, how it happens that they all have exactly the same speed and do not lag behind and fall into disorder.

The facts are these: The sun is moving at a speed of about twelve miles per second, which carries it about one million miles per day, in a northerly direction, toward a point in the sky which is not very far from one of the most beautiful stars in the visible universe, the brilliant Vega, situated in the constellation known from ancient times as The Lyre. But the motion is not directly toward that great star, and it is not to be supposed that the attraction of that star has any perceptible influence on the direction, or speed, of the sun's movements.

In truth, owing to the extreme difficulty of determining with exactness either the speed or the direction, different investigators have fixed upon somewhat different locations for the "apex" of the sun's "way," i. e., the precise point toward which its motion is carrying it. The difficulty arises from the fact that not only the sun but all the other stars, its brother suns, are in motion, each with a velocity, and in a direction, of its own.

Thus it appears that flying through space, one way or another, and often with astonishing velocity, amounting in some cases to several hundred miles per second, is as natural and as universal an attribute of suns as is their radiation of light. Not one of them stands fast, any more than the particles constituting a mass of gas could remain fixed in position.

This indicates the ground on which it has been assumed that the universe of stars (suns) resembles a widely expanded gas, the stars representing the vibrating gaseous molecules. This imaginary resemblance may at least be used to illustrate the unquestionable fact that the motion of our sun is not something peculiar to it, but something shared, in differing degrees, by every shining particle of the vast organism called the universe.

If we regard the sun as simply one of the flying molecules or atoms of the starry universe, then, as far as magnitude is concerned, we may consider the earth and the other members of the solar system to be the corpuscles or electrons revolving around the nucleus of that atom and sharing its movement as it swings to and fro, or round and about among its hundreds of millions of fellow atoms.

Letters to the Editor

Spanish War Veterans

Editor Boston American:

The veterans of the Spanish-American War, as well as civilians, are to be compelled to pay a poll tax of $2 and an extra tax of $3 per year during the next three years. The $3 tax has been assessed to cover the expense of paying the world war veterans a bonus of $100. The veterans of the Civil War as well as the veterans of the world war are exempt from this extra tax. This appears to me as very unjust, as the intent of every man that enlisted in the Spanish-American War was just as good as any man that enlisted in these other wars.

HENRY L. FOIGETT,
Veteran Spanish-American War.

Killing Votes

Editor Boston American:

There ought to be a law making it a criminal offence for any counter of votes to have the same colored pencil as the voter uses. In counting up, the counter may slip in an extra cross, killing the vote. I have seen this done, but couldn't prove it. C. B. G.

Our Golden Grain
How Big Is the Universe?
Many Headaches in That Assorted Prohibition

—By Arthur Brisbane—

Copyright, 1920.

A farmer said he wouldn't bother about rats. "For I have more than enough grain for them and all the stock besides." He was foolish. What the rats couldn't eat they spoiled.

We learn from John Fletcher of Chicago's Fort Dearborn Bank, that the old U. S. A. farm is well supplied with golden grain.

For instance, with only five per cent. of the earth's population to feed, we raise twenty-four per cent. of the earth's crops, about five times our share.

We produce forty per cent. of the earth's mineral wealth and manufacture thirty-five per cent. of its goods, eight and seven times our share respectively.

The richest country in the world outside of ours is England, with eighty billion dollars. We have three times that amount of money.

All this is encouraging. Besides, we have a trade balance of five thousand millions. What the world buys from us costs five billions more than what we buy from the world.

Foreign nations used to own eight thousand millions in American securities. We sent them interest on that. We have bought it all back, paying cash, with war profits, and now keep the interest.

What do we care about nine or ten billions lent to Europe, on which we are getting no interest?

Half of the world's gold is here, and while gold is not really wealth, we delight in it, as a jackdaw delights in his bright little pieces of glass.

Deposits in our banks are greater by thousands of millions than all the deposits in all the banks in all the other countries of the world.

Verily we have accomplished wonders, and truly "It hath not been shown what we shall be."

Are there many universes outside of the milky way in which our sun and its planets are as a grain of dust?

How big is that lighted avenue, the Galactic circle, in which we swim through space? Its size is measured in "light years," the distance that light travels in one year. Light travels at a speed that would take it around the earth seven times in a second. Scientists say it would take light about three hundred thousand years to cross the milky way. In some quiet moment figure out for yourself how big it is.

Some scientists say a few billions or trillions of suns with their planet families in our little group make up the whole universe.

That would seem big enough for any cosmic experiment. Others think that every one of the nebulas you see is another universe.

One modern theory sees this universe "shaped like a pancake" floating in space. Curiously enough the ancient Greek had the same notion about the earth's shape. They "saw" it was flat and thought it was like a leaf, floating on the water bright sunlight above, below, shadows for the dead.

The Greeks were wrong with their leaf-shaped idea, and our scientists are wrong with their "pancake" universe.

If anything is certain it is that the sphere is the cosmic shape, from the giant sun Aldabaran to Shakespeare's "Ruddy drops that visit this sad heart."

The blood runs in round drops through your veins and arteries. The planets roll in round balls on their errands. And the universe presumably is made up of infinitely numerous round "universes," all rolling together on some spiral errand slightly beyond our mental grasp.

You may say that to suggest an infinite number of universes gives you a headache. So does the thought of infinite space outside of the universe, and all empty. Infinite power and wisdom, with infinite space and time to work in, will undoubtedly go creating and filling space infinitely. You can't imagine cosmic power having less ambition than Alexander the Great.

Assorted prohibition news. England takes out "Pussyfoot insurance." For half of one per cent. you buy insurance against any law, in twelve months, forbidding sale of whiskey in England.

The new President of France forbids in his home any alcoholic drink except beer and light wine. That isn't exactly prohibition news, for the real Frenchman has never used spirits.

Offer him the smallest glass of fine chapagne after dinner or suggest that he drink his Bordeaux without water and he will ask "Do you think I want to alcoholize myself?"

The biggest prohibition city, New York, is rapidly demonstrating the fact that a thing can be in the Constitution and not real. At first little restaurants sold whiskey secretly. Big hotels were very strict. Now little restaurants sell whiskey and gin openly. Big hotels say, "Bring it with you" and we'll serve you. The trouble is that you can get only the worst alcoholic poisons. No mild beer or wine, which wasn't exactly the prohibition
